

CJARS Training Workshop at the University of Michigan

Learn about the cutting edge of U.S. criminal justice data infrastructure for research and statistical applications

The CJARS Training Workshop aims to educate participants about new research opportunities to study the U.S. criminal justice system and provide participants with hands-on experience with the data.

WORKSHOP DATE
OCTOBER 5, 2023

Workshop will be immediately followed by the Transatlantic Workshop on the Economics of Crime (TWEC) on October 6-7, 2023

Click here to learn more about TWEC

WORKSHOP TOPICS

- CJ data infrastructure
- Public documentation
- Hands-on Practicum
 - Replication
 - Free exploration
- FSRDC opportunities
- Recent research
- New Justice Outcomes Explorer public dashboard

WORKSHOP LOCATION

Institute for Social Research
426 Thompson St
Ann Arbor, MI 48104

FUNDING AVAILABLE

- Travel/accommodations for workshop & TWEC for up to 25 participants
- Ph.D. student and junior scholars prioritized

Submit CV and one-page write-up on how workshop will fit into career goals/research agenda by August 7, 2023 to twec2023@gmail.com for consideration.

Questions?

→ cjars-workshop@umich.edu

REGISTER HERE:

- <https://cjars.org/twec>

